In This Guide . . .

A good kid from a m.A.A.d. city.

Who is Kendrick Lamar? What’s his story?

How did he become a rapper?

What influences him, his music, and his style?

So what does he rap about?

All of this is really deep. Why is he so open and vulnerable in his music?

Wait. Aren’t his lyrics explicit?

Is he really a Christian then?

Why do my kids (or their friends) love his music so much? Is it just the beat they like?

So should I let my kids listen to his music?
Are there better Christian alternatives I could suggest?
