A Parent’s Guide to Profanity
In This Guide . . .

- What did you just say?!
- What is profanity or swearing?
- How did some words come to be considered “bad words” and not others?
- Why do we swear? (And why does my teen swear so much?!)?
- Why is it that sometimes only swear words seem to convey something to its full effect?
- Yeah, what does the Bible say about cussing/profanity/language?
- What does the Bible say about the nature and purpose of human speech?
- So it’s okay to cuss/swear?
- How do I teach my kids a God-honoring view of language?
- How should I handle it if I hear my kid using profanity?
Will it hurt my kid’s chances of getting a job or some other opportunity if he talks “like a sailor”?

Is it “holier” to use Christian alternatives to swear words?

How can we not be legalistic with others who choose to swear?

Is it bad to consume media that has profanity in it?
